

CREATIVE ARTS CAMP IS...

- A unique way for kids of ages 8-14 to explore the creative and worship arts
- Where campers learn the skills and confidence to serve in ministries at their home church
- Staffed with caring, qualified adults who wish to see your campers grow in their Christian experience, gifts, and skills
- Safe and fun, as every precaution is taken to assure that campers remain healthy and safe while at camp

A FUN FILLED WEEK !

- We start and end the camp week with a campfire program including team building games and a ropes course, songs and worship, and a devotional
- Campers choose their activity classes for the week to match their interests and talents

- Each morning begins with devotions, and throughout the day we have chapel time and bible study
- Each evening has a different evening program to bring the campers together and create lasting memories
- There is a performance rehearsal period during the camp day to work on the grand finale of the week which is....
- A fabulous performance on Friday evening showcasing campers' talents, skills, and passions for both Christ and the creative arts
